

Evaluation for Health Policy and Health Care: A Contemporary Data-Driven Approach

College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams are computer-based college-level tests that anyone can take to earn credit toward a college degree. More than 2,900 colleges and universities in the U.S. grant credit to students for qualifying CLEP exam scores.

There are 34 multiple-choice CLEP exams in 5 subject areas. Students register for the tests online, then contact a test center to schedule the test. Free online courses and other practice resources are available to help students prepare for the tests.

Here are some reasons for students to take a CLEP exam:
