

Protecting Study Volunteers in Research

Pierre answered that he "was protecting a woman," and that "to protect a woman who was being insulted was the duty of every man; that..." They interrupted him, for this was not to the point.

I was merely protecting myself from the pain of witnessing what it would hurt me to witness.

In the windows at the vacant end of the room stood six or eight, narrow-bladed swords with large protecting guards for the hand, and outside was a man at work sharpening others on a grindstone. They all seemed to tell; the swords always bent over the opponents' heads, from the forehead back over the crown, and seemed to touch, all the way; but it was not so--a protecting blade, invisible to me, was always interposed between.

Instead she was a lioness, watching over and protecting her sick mate.

My heart, believe me, is able to appraise at its true worth all that you have done for me by protecting me from my enemies, and from hatred and persecution.

For what sinister purpose could this savage enemy be protecting her from the other denizens of his cruel jungle? Before I leave you I will give you the means of protecting yourself against them should one of them chance to turn upon you.

Moreover, in the face of climate change's biggest threats, protecting and conserving the country's natural defense against calamities, they added, enhances the community's chances of survival especially in areas that are prone to disasters.

Originally developed for protecting aircraft during restoration work, All-Protect can be used on a variety of materials.

Reference

Research Methods in Psychology: Evaluating a World of Information

Study Guide for Essentials of Nursing Research