

What's Wrong With Leadership?: Improving Leadership Research and Practice

Questions: interrogative pronouns ( what , who )

We use interrogative pronouns to ask questions. They are: who, which, whom, what and whose. These are also known as wh-words. Questions using these are called wh-questions:

Reference

Qualitative and Mixed Methods in Public Health

Philosophies and Theories for Advanced Nursing Practice