

When to Use What Research Design

I can access sticky notes on my android, and that syncs to windows 10 no problem.

I try to use the feed in Onenote using the same account and it does not work.

I get this error message:

Message: AADSTS500200: User account 'rltidd@tidd27.com' is a personal Microsoft account. Personal Microsoft accounts are not supported for this application unless explicitly invited to an organization. Try signing out and signing back in with an organizational account.

I had used the feed in the past, but now it is not working.

My Office 365 subscription is linked to rltidd@tidd27.com

How can I fix this issue?

I also found that feed works just fine in OneNote windows 10 online. Sticky notes showup in feed. Do not get the error message.
